

Murdoch University's Moot Court Bench presents the Mock Trial Competition Training Seminar and Workshop

Saturday, 6 April 2019 10.00am – 2.00pm

Herbert Smith Freehills Lecture Theatre, School of Law, Murdoch University

Registration is now open for Mock Trial Competition training from Murdoch University.

Moot Court Bench is a programme exclusive to Murdoch University designed to teach law students how to become the best advocates in court room proceedings.

Members of the Moot Court Bench would like to introduce you to advocacy training, with a seminar designed to familiarise you with the art of trial advocacy.

Registration is open to school students who are participating in the 2019 season of the Mock Trial Competition.

Sign in, Introduction and Welcome
9:50am Herbert Smith Freehills Lecture Theatre
Seminar by Aoning Li, Associate Lecturer, School of Law, Murdoch University
10:00 to 10:30am Herbert Smith Freehills Lecture Theatre
Group Workshops led by Moot Court Bench members
10:30 to 11:30am Various Law School Classrooms
Light Lunch
11:30am to 12:00pm
Interactive Demonstration Trial
12:00 to 2:00pm Herbert Smith Freehills Lecture Theatre	State of WA v Maclean Participants, please bring any materials you prepared for your Round 1 trial

To register, please contact:
 Mock Trial Coordinator
mocktrial@lawsocietywa.asn.au
 Registrations close Wednesday, 3 April 2019.