

COVID-19 Safety Protocol for Visitors to Law Society Offices

From Monday, 31 January 2022, all visitors to our office and the Old Court House Law Museum (Offices) who do not have a medical exemption must be fully vaccinated for COVID-19 if they are over 16 years of age.

The Law Society continues to take measures to protect the health and safety of our staff and visitors to our Offices.

From Monday, 31 January 2022 until further notice, ALL visitors attending our Offices will be required to:

- Sanitise and check-in either at reception or prior to entry (to the museum or Level 5 training room) using our QR code, or via the manual check in register.
- Provide evidence of being fully vaccinated or a copy of your medical exemption upon request. Note: This can be done by showing your COVID-19 Digital Certificate via the Service WA app, or by providing a printed immunisation certificate together with your current photo identification. If you are medically exempt from vaccination, you will be requested to show your exemption certificate as registered through the Australian Immunisation Register together with your current photo identification.
- Wear a face mask at all times unless you are eating or drinking.
- Practice physical distancing per government guidance.

The Law Society has a duty of care to provide our staff and visitors with the requisite standard of health and safety in the office environment and we appreciate your cooperation with these requests. We will continue to monitor government guidelines and update our practices and policies accordingly.

Please note:

- If you feel unwell or have any COVID-19 symptoms, please call to reschedule your meeting/CPD or organise an online meeting/CPD.
- If your preference is not to meet in person, we can organise an online meeting.
- If you are not fully vaccinated, or choose not to disclose your vaccination status, we will, where possible organise for you to attend your CPD online. Please contact the CPD team on (08) 9324 8640 during normal office hours.

We thank you for your cooperation and sincerely appreciate your understanding in assisting the Law Society to support the safety and wellbeing of our staff, our members, our visitors and our community.
