Terms, Conditions and Exclusions

The Law Society of Western Australia reserves the right to exclude any CPD seminar or Law Society event from CPD Freedom at any time without further notice.

The Law Society reserves the right to restrict the number of CPD Freedom places available at any seminar or event.

CPD Freedom members avoid cancellation fees when they cancel attending a seminar in which they have enrolled, but it's important to advise the Law Society of non-attendance at the earliest opportunity. CPD Freedom members can now cancel seminars online by logging into their Member Dashboard via the Law Society Website (<https://members.lawsocietywa.asn.au>). Please note that places are limited at some seminars and repeated non-attendance is monitored.

CPD Freedom entitlements and benefits are only accessible in the current CPD year.

CPD Freedom subscription and your Law Society membership must be financial at all times. They cannot be retrospectively claimed, claimed before you have paid your annual Law Society membership subscription, or accessed once your Law Society membership has lapsed.

CPD Freedom is not available on a pro-rata basis, i.e. if a new member joins after a pro-rata membership renewal programme has commenced, they must pay the FULL CPD Freedom cost for the membership year it applies to and CPD Freedom is only applicable to the membership year in which it has been acquired.

Members that pay a full year membership may at any time pay the full additional cost of CPD Freedom to “upgrade” their membership to include CPD Freedom.

The Law Society reserves the right to alter or change these terms and conditions without notice.
