4 Cover in certain circumstances for a Claim first made after the expiration of the Period of Insurance

This Certificate does not cover a Claim first made against an Insured after the expiration of the Period of Insurance. Where the Insured gives written notice to the Insurers during the Period of Insurance of facts that might give rise to a Claim as soon as reasonably practicable after the Insured becomes aware of those facts, the Insured may be entitled pursuant to s40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) to be indemnified by the Insurers in respect of a Claim subsequently made arising from those facts, notwithstanding the Claim is first made after the expiration of the Period of Insurance.

5 Notification of a Claim as soon as reasonably practicable

An Insured must give written notice of a Claim first made against the Insured during the Period of Insurance as soon as reasonably practicable after the Claim is made.

6 Limitation on an Insured's right to incur costs, admit liability or settle a Claim

An Insured must not incur costs in connection with, admit liability for, or settle, a Claim, without Law Mutual's prior written consent, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld.

7 Insured must co-operate with the Insurers in the investigation and conduct of a Claim

An Insured must co-operate with the Insurers by promptly providing Law Mutual and its agents with any information and assistance reasonably requested by them in relation to the investigation and conduct of a Claim.

8 Limitation on the Insurers' right to reject or reduce payment of a Claim

9 Defending a Claim

9.1 Disputes about how a Claim should be Resolved

- 9.1.1 Subject to clause 9.2, the Insurers are entitled at any time:
- 9.1.1.1 at their own cost, to take over the conduct of the Insured's defence of a Claim;
 - 9.1.1.2 to relinquish conduct of the Insured's defence of a Claim; or
 - 9.1.1.3 to settle a Claim, but only with the Insured's consent, unless the consent is unreasonably withheld or the Insured unreasonably delays informing the Insurers whether or not it consents to settlement of the Claim.
- 9.1.2 The Insurers will not unreasonably refuse to conduct the Insured's defence of a Claim that is covered by this Certificate.

9.2 Disagreement on how a Claim should be Resolved

- 9.2.1 If the Insured and the Insurers cannot agree on how a Claim should be Resolved, they agree to be bound by the recommendation of an Independent Legal Practitioner jointly agreed upon by the Insured and the Law Society on behalf of the Insurers (or failing agreement a legal practitioner appointed by the President of the Western Australia Bar Association) as to how the Claim should be Resolved, having regard to:
- 9.2.1.1 the prospects of the Insured successfully defending the Claim on its merits at trial or on appeal;
 - 9.2.1.2 the estimated quantum of the Claim; and
 - 9.2.1.3 all cost implications associated with the defence of the Claim to trial or on appeal (including the potential for recovery of costs from a party arising by reason of a taxed entitlement to costs).
- 9.2.2 The Independent Legal Practitioner will act as an expert, not an arbitrator, and is empowered to give directions to resolve the dispute quickly and cost effectively.
- 9.2.3 The fee payable to the Independent Legal Practitioner is to be paid as directed by the Independent Legal Practitioner, having regard to all of the circumstances of the recommendation, including especially whether any party had substantial success.
- 9.2.4 If the Independent Legal Practitioner recommends under clause 9.2.1 that the Claim be settled, the Independent Legal Practitioner must recommend an amount that the Claim should be settled for (Recommended Settlement Amount).
- 9.2.5 If the Independent Legal Practitioner recommends under Clause 9.2.1 that the Claim be settled and the Insured does not, within 14 days after receiving the Independent Legal Practitioner's recommendation and Recommended Settlement Amount (or such lesser time as may be reasonable in the circumstances), notify the Insurers that the Insured consents to the Insurers offering to settle the Claim for up to the Recommended Settlement Amount, the Insurers are not liable to indemnify the Insured for more than:
- 9.2.5.1 the Recommended Settlement Amount plus Claimant's Costs and Related Costs incurred to the date the Insured received the recommendation; or
 - 9.2.5.2 the Limit of Indemnity, whichever is the lesser.
- 9.2.6 If the Independent Legal Practitioner recommends under clause 9.2.1 that the Claim be settled and the Insurers do not, within 14 days after receiving the Independent Legal Practitioner's recommendation and Recommended Settlement Amount (or such lesser time as is reasonable in the circumstances), notify the Insured that they consent to the Insured offering to settle the Claim for up to the Recommended Settlement Amount, the Insurers are liable to indemnify the Insured for the full amount of the Insured's liability to the Claimant. The Insurers' liability to indemnify is not subject to the Limit of Indemnity.

If a dispute arises between two or more Insureds who are insured under different certificates of insurance issued by the Law Society (whether insured under this Master Policy or another master policy), as to which of them is liable to the Claimant and if more than one, as to the proportionate liability of each Insured, such dispute shall be referred to an Independent legal practitioner nominated by the Insureds and the Law Society on behalf of the Insurers (or failing agreement a practitioner appointed by the President of the Western Australian Bar Association).

10.2 Independent Legal Practitioner's duties

- 10.2.1 The Independent Legal Practitioner shall give a brief written opinion as to:
- 10.2.1.1 which one or more of the Insureds (if any) is, in their opinion, likely to be found liable to the Claimant; and
 - 10.2.1.2 the apportionment of liability between the Insureds if the Independent Legal Practitioner thinks more than one Insured is likely to be found liable to the Claimant.
- 10.2.2 The Independent legal practitioner shall give the opinion:
- 10.2.2.1 as an expert, not as an arbitrator; and
 - 10.2.2.2 on the basis of written documentation and submissions provided by each of the Insureds and without the hearing of oral evidence or representations; and
 - 10.2.2.3 on the basis of what the Independent Legal Practitioner believes is just and equitable in the circumstances.
