PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS SCHEME

On 1 July 2019 the Law Society launched a Professional Standards Scheme (Scheme) for the benefit of its members. Further information about the Scheme may be found on the Law Society's website at lawsocietywa.asn.au/pss.

Incorporated Legal Practice (ILP) members, Ordinary members and Life members of the Law Society who hold an Australian Practising Certificate are automatically members of the Scheme unless exempted by the Law Society from participation on application by the member.

To allow the Law Society to administer the Scheme appropriately, and to calculate the monetary ceiling (maximum amount of liability) which may apply in any given case, the Law Society requires each applicant for Ordinary membership who holds an Australian Practising Certificate, and each applicant for ILP membership, to complete a form headed "Professional Standards Scheme Participant Information".

Any application for Ordinary membership (by a person who holds an Australian Practising Certificate) or ILP membership must be accompanied by:

- a) a completed "Professional Standards Scheme Participant Information" form OR
- b) in the case of a person seeking exemption, subject to s30(4) of the Professional Standards Act 1997, an Application for Exemption from participation in the Scheme.

MEMBER AGREEMENT

I acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) the membership of the Incorporated Legal Practice (ILP) is subject to the Constitution of the Law Society (as amended from time to time);
- (b) as a requirement for ILP membership, the Constitution of the Law Society requires each Legal Practitioner Director of the ILP usually carrying on practice in Western Australia to be an Ordinary member of the Law Society
- (c) as a requirement for Ordinary membership, the Constitution of the Law Society requires an Ordinary member to be an Australian Legal Practitioner or a person who is lawfully entitled under the laws of the Commonwealth to practise in Western Australia;
- (d) by:
 - (i) s6 of the Legal Profession Act Uniform Law 2022 (WA) (the Uniform Law), an Australian legal practitioner means an Australian lawyer who holds a current Australian practising certificate; and
- (e) all Australian legal practitioners practising in Western Australia are governed by the Uniform Law (as amended from time to time) and bound by the Uniform Law Conduct Rules (as amended from time to time) in addition to any duty or requirement imposed on a practitioner by statute, law or equity; and
- (f) As an Incorporated Legal Practice (ILP) seeking or renewing membership of the Law Society the Professional Standards Scheme applies or may apply to the ILP and in order to notify the Law Society of its participation the ILP is required to submit a Professional Standards Scheme Participation Information form.
- (g) As an Incorporated Legal Practice (ILP) seeking or renewing membership of the Law Society and exemption from participation in the Professional Standards Scheme the ILP is required to submit an application for exemption from the Scheme on behalf of the ILP and each Australian Legal Practitioner within the practice.
